KARA TAKES STEEPLECHASE

Colt's Colors Carried to Victory in Jumping Race by Gallant Rush in the Stretch—Oraculum, Heavily Backed, Wins in a Gallop in Second Race for Platers—Summaries.

Nearly 8,000 enthusiasts attended the races at the Benning track yesterday afternoon, the card being the most attractive since the opening of the season. Speculation, which was not of the plunging variety, was brisk, and every winner received liberal support. The weather was clear and the track in excellent condition.

A feature was the Washington Nursery, at four and a half furlongs, the first two-year-old stake to be run in the East this season. John E. Madden had three starters, Takahira, Clef, and Witching Hour, and they were coupled in the speculation; opening at 6 to 5, they receded to 9 to 5, only to be reduced to 8 to 5 at the last moment. Bullock was solidly played, and his odds dropped from 2 to 3. Meanwhile Personal, believed to be the best fully shown here by a far, was loyally supported at 6 to 5, the odds falling a couple of points at the last moment.

At the start Personal broke like a flash, and proceeded to cut out a hot pace. Clef and Huddy went after her, while Takahira was knocked back on the far turn. In the stretch Takahira began to make up the lost ground with so much stamina that McCahey, looking back, had to go to a drive with Personal. It was a sharply drawn finish, in which Personal, firing managed by half a length, won before Balbeck, who was interfered with in the early stages, but ran a game race and beat Bonnie Kelso a head for third place.

Victory for Colt.

J. W. Colt, whose stable of jumpers appears to be invincible just now, saw his colors carried to victory in the handicap steeplechase at about two miles and a half. Kara receded from 4 to 5 to 6 to 5, but he proved to be much the best. Newt Fisher, coupled with Bessie Kiser, started off with so much early speed that he had a lead of fifty yards in the first round of the course. But near the last obstacle he stopped to nothing, as Essex, with Dion Kerr up, and Beris caught him. Then Beris quit and Kara, under a patient ride from McInerney, came with a gallant rush in the stretch, winning easily by four lengths, with Essex lasting long enough to beat Huddy by a neck for the place. Huddy was kept too far out of the race in the early stages, else he might have done better. The entire field jumped in splendid style.

Belwether, who in the Benning Handicap on Monday, met his match in Fred Littlefield's Jubilee in the Potomac Purse for three-year-olds. Each carried 115 pounds, Belwether being a hot favorite at 7 to 10, while Jubilee was well taken at 13 to 10. It was a two-horse race all the way. Belwether had plenty of speed at the outset, and showed the way for about half a mile. Then Shaw, who had been waiting with Jubilee, got busy, and the son of Compute breezed to the front and easily beat Belwether by a length and a half. Bill Daly got third with Winning Star.

Easy for Oraculum.

George Odom's Oraculum was himself in the second race for platers. He was a heavily backed favorite at 11 to 10, made all the running, and won in a gallop by two lengths. Under a poor ride by Tommy Burns, Bulle Hinder, 5 to 2, second choice, rushed into this place, length and a half before King of Bashan.

Workman and Greeno, equal favorites at 5 to 2, had the first race for platers at seven furlongs between them. Workman had all kinds of speed, and cutting out the pace, he was returned a handy winner by three parts of a length. Greeno, with shawl up, was second all the way. Brookdale, a 30-to-1 shot, after showing a good turn of speed, quit in the home stretch.

Ferry Landing, 8 to 5 favorite, won the last race for maidens. He led all the way, but seemed to be beaten at the last sixteenth pole. But he was game and stood a hard drive to win by a head from Billy B. Van, with Billy Daly's Caesar third.

Four favorites and a second choice rewarded the talent, the books being hot. McCahey rode two winners.
